| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenNaturnaher Bach mit schwacher Kerbtalausprägung, der durch einen Eschen-Mischwald fließt (Biotop 02028-421-4015). Der Bach fließt in Mäandern. Das Bett ist vielgestaltig mit vielen Unebenheiten, Kolken und flachen Stellen. Der Untergrund ist meist sandig, stellenweise auch kiesig. Es haben sich an manchen Stellen kleine Staustufen aus Totholz gebildet. Stellenweise sind kleine Prall- und Gleitänge ausgebildet. Der Bach ist bis etwa 1 m breit, am Ufer liegen teils große Steine. Wasserpflanzen finden sich nicht. |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                     |       |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                  |  |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
