| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenFeuchtbrache am Rand eines Gehölzes. Im Norden dominiert die Sumpf-Segge, nach Süden nimmt dann der Anteil anderer Arten wie zum Beispiel Rohrglanzgras, Flatterbinse, Wiesen-Segge und Gemeiner Gilbweiderich zu. Grauweiden stehen vereinzelt auf der Fläche. Im Süden liegt ein kleiner Tümpel, an dem Bulte der Steif-Segge stehen. |   |                  |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |   |   |                                                       |                                                                                                                                                          |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                          |                          |  |  |                                                                                                                                                |  |  |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |  |  |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                              |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                            |  |  |  |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |   |  |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                    |   |   |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |   |   |   |   |
