| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenÖstlicher Teil einer vermoorten Senke inmitten eines Ackers. Im nordwestlichen Teil der Fläche steht ein dichtes Grauweiden-Feuchtgebüsch. Es ist von einem Schilfgürtel umgeben, im Westen säumen Erlen die Senke. Nach Osten schließt sich ein Schilfröhricht an, anschließend ein kleines feuchtes Erlengehölz. Unter den Erlen stehen zum Beispiel Scheinzypen-Segge, Kohldistel, Rasen-Schmiele und Sumpf-Reitgras. Die Brennessel dringt ein. |   |                  |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |   |   |                                   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                |  |  |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                   |   |                                                               |  |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |  |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
