| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenDer nördliche, größere Teil des Biotopes ist von einem dichten Netz aus trockengefallenen Entwässerungsgräben durchzogen. Hier dominieren Springkraut und Rasenschmiele, häufig auch Schilf und Rohrglanzgras die Krautschicht. Die Erlen sind häufig 5- und mehrstämmig, es handelt sich um einen alten Bestand mit viel Totholz. Ein südlicher schmaler Teil wird von Sumpfseggen und Sumpffarn dominiert. Eschen und Moorbirken sind nur vereinzelt zu finden. |                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |   |                                                                                                             |                                        |  |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                  |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
