| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenDer nasse, z.T. überflutete Standort befindet sich im degradierten Feuchtgrünland südwestlich der Bahnlinie Teterow-Malchin und ist Bestandteil eines ausgedehnten Niedermoorkomplexes im Malchiner Becken. Der relativ schütterere Seggenbestand ist durch die Dominanz der Ufer-Segge charakterisiert, daneben tritt auch die Schlank-Segge häufig auf. Die überfluteten Bereiche sind durch einen Flutrasen aus Weiß-Straußgras gekennzeichnet. Der Standort ist von degradiertem, aufgelassenen Feuchtgrünland umgeben. |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |   |                  |                                                                                    |  |                                    |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
