| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenNaturnahe Verlandungszone am Westufer der Müritz als Verlandungsmoor am Rande der kuppigen Grundmoräne von Laubmischwald und Röhrichten (Luftbildcodiert) sowie kleinflächig Feuchtwald (Biotop 4016) und Ufergehölzen (Luftbildcodiert) umgeben. Auf sehr feuchten bis nassen, wenig gestörten Torfen und Antorf ist eine naturnahe Abfolge der Verlandungsvegetation zu beobachten. Der Röhrichtzone des Sees folgt ein Erlen-Grauweidengebüsch mit kleinflächig eingestreutem Großseggen-Schilfröhricht, das zum Rand hin in ein breiteres Ufergehölz in der Ausbildung als Erlen-Baumweiden-Ufergehölz mit Bruchweide und Ufersegge bzw. kleinflächig auch in der Ausbildung als Erlen-Eschen-Ufergehölz übergeht. |   |                  |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |   |   |                                               |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |   |  |                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |   |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |  |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                           |  |  |  |                                                                                       |   |   |                                                                                                                                        |  |   |  |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |   |   |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |  |  |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
