| Beschreibung / BesonderheitenCa. 500 m nördlich des Hauptmannsberges und auf dem Kamm der Pommerschen Hauptendmoräne befindet sich ein Überrest eines Sandtrockenrasens, der umgeben wird von Gebüsch und Pioniergehölzen. Bis etwa 1960 wurde der gesamte Endmoränenbereich beweidet oder sogar als Acker genutzt. Danach sind große Teile verbuscht. Teilweise sind bereits Pionierwälder vorhanden.In den letzten Jahren wurde die Beweidung mit Schafen wieder aufgenommen und Teilflächen der Gebüsche beseitigt worden. So konnte sich die Trockenrasenrestfläche erhalten. Zumindest im Jahr 2006 wurden einige Flächen aber deutlich überbeweidet. So war die Vegetationsdecke im Bereich einer ehemaligen Sandgrube weitgehend zerstört. Die ehemals hier vorkommende Mondraute wurde nicht gefunden. Auch ansonsten war der Rasen relativ artenarm.                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                           |   |                                                                                                           |                                                                                                           |                                                      |                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                               |   |   |   |  |                                                                                                                                                   |  |                                                                                                                                               |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                         |   |   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |   |   |   |   |                                                                                                                                                           |  |   |   |   |   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
